On 7 May 2008 at about 1400 hours, Oakland Police Officers responded to a report of a man beating a woman in the rear of 1242 95th Ave. Upon arrival, they met with an adult female victim who said that the suspect had dragged her to the location and attempted to rape her. The suspect was stopped by responding officers in the 1200 block of 96th Ave and positively identified by the victim in a field show up.

Lt Hoffman authorized a YFSD callout and SVU Investigators responded. The suspect was identified as Carlos Campbell, a 290 PC registrant who was recently released from prison. He was transported to Santa Rita Jail for a SART exam. He later claimed that he was suicidal, and a psychiatric hold was placed on him.

The suspect's parole officer was notified and provided GPS tracking information, which verified the suspect's location before, during, and after the assault. A parole hold has been placed on the suspect. A parole search was conducted on the suspect's motel room and suspected marijuana was recovered.

The investigation is ongoing
