On 13 Feb 08, at approximately 1103 hours, Oakland Police Officers were dispatched to investigate the report of a forcible sexual assault. Upon arrival, officers met with a female adult victim. The victim has been diagnosed with a mild form of retardation (having a mental age of 14-15 years old). The victim reported that on 11 Feb 08 an adult male had forced her to perform a sexual act.

Officers located and detained the suspect, whom the victim positively identified. The suspect was arrested and transported to the Police Administration Building.

Lt. E. Poulson activated the Youth and Family Services Division stand-by investigators to follow up the investigation. Investigators reviewed the case, followed up with the victim and witnesses, and admonished the suspect, who declined to waive his rights and provide a statement.

The suspect, identified as Rahdsan Tate, a 30-year-old Oakland resident, was transported to North County Jail for processing and booking.

The investigation is on going.
