On March 3, 2007, about 7:09 PM, Oakland Police Officers responded to a reported attempted robbery call in the 6000 block of Colby Street. The victim told the officers that a group of females and males attempted to take property from his person and fled. A description of the suspects was broadcast and Officer P Gerrans and J. Cunnie observed a group matching the suspect descriptions. The possible suspects were detained. The victim was brought to the scene and identified three of the suspects as participants in the attempted robbery. All three suspects were transported to the Criminal Investigations Division for interview. The suspects were identified as juvenile residents of Oakland. All suspects made admissions related to the crime.

This investigation is continuing and anyone with information regarding this incident is urged to contact the Robbery Section (510) 238-3327.
