Oakland Police Department to roll out “Scooter Enforcement Project”

Oakland, CA (June 2, 2003) On Tuesday, June 3, 2003, at 10:00 a.m., the Oakland Police Department will hold a press conference at City Hall to announce the start of its “Scooter Enforcement Project.” Issues to be addressed include traffic safety, nuisance, and non-compliance of the law including age and equipment violations, as they relate to the use of motorized scooters. Elements of the project include outreach, education and enforcement.

Representatives of the Oakland Police Department as well as, City Councilmembers Jean Quan, Ignacio De La Fuente, Jane Brunner, and Vice-Mayor Nancy Nadel will be in attendance.

A fact sheet detailing the “Scooter Enforcement Project” will be provided at the press conference. For additional information concerning this press conference, contact Officer Danielle Ashford at (510) 238-7230.
